Bethel School Costs Explained

The 1963 school budget calls for raising $173,000, an increase of $13,000 or $2 per $1,000 valuation. Increased state subsidy and tuition paid Bethel by other towns will absorb the major part of a $35,000 total increase.

High school increases exceed elementary increases for the fourth consecutive year. $22,500 more will be needed for high school tuition. Woodstock High School now has over 100 students and will be able to charge the same rate as Gould Academy, 125% of state average costs.

Elementary increases of $12,500 include $2,500 for grading the grounds at Crescent Park School and $10,000 for instruction. The latter includes $1,400 for textbooks, $800 for teaching supplies, $1,200 for substitutes (due partly to the prolonged illness of two teachers in early 1963), and $6,600 for contract salaries. Most of this increase is committed under contracts for the current school year, and is due partly to the hiring of degree teachers last fall to replace non-degree teachers who resigned.

Salary increases to classroom teachers for the year starting September 1 would average $200 and total $4,000, of which $1,500 is in the 1963 budget. This includes adjustments from a range on the present schedule of $3,730-$4,690 to a new scale of $3,800-$4,800. After five years on the present schedule the School Committee considers the new scale necessary to retain and attract good teachers in today's competition. Annual increases of $200 for degree teachers and $150 for non-degree teachers are planned to replace the $160 and $120 increments of the past five years.

No funds have been requested for Capital Outlay this year. Repayment and interest on school debt are in separate articles, as is the question of high school bus transportation.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The deadline for filing signed nomination papers of elective office is rapidly approaching. The town clerk must have the signed nomination papers two weeks prior to town meeting. There are four elective offices to be filled this year. Two selectmen and assessors terms expire that must be filled for three years. There are two school committee terms that must be filled. One school committee term is for three years and one term is for one year. The one year term on the school committee is to fill the unexpired term of the resignations that occurred on the school committee during the year. Anyone desiring to run for any of these four offices must get nomination papers from the town clerk and return the papers to the town clerk with the signatures of fifty registered voters.

Starting March 6, 1963, the town office will be closed Wednesday. The selectmen feel that the closing will cut expenses and still have the office open enough to give anyone ample time to transact any necessary business. If this will cause a hardship on anyone they may contact the office before the new hours go into effect.

The budget committee should finish their hearings this week. The committee has held four hearings to date and a fifth hearing is scheduled. It is hoped that the fifth hearing will conclude their business.

Michael Houlihan

Dr. Trinward Elected President BADC

In spite of inclement weather, more than forty members and guests turned out for the Fifth Annual Meeting of the Bethel Area Development Corporation at the West Parish Church on Tuesday of this week.

After a delicious dinner served by the ladies of the church, all present heard interesting talks on the related subjects of community planning and business financing given by Frank Milliken of the Maine Department of Economic Development and Maurice Williams, Maine Manager for the U. S. Small Business Administration. Both speakers explained in some detail the operations of the organizations they represent in various phases of community development. It was especially interesting to learn from Mr. Williams that the S. B. A. lending program is available to qualified business establishments in amounts ranging from $500.00 to $350,000.00 for new construction or the expansion of existing facilities.

At the business meeting of the Corporation, the members heard the Annual Reports of the Officers and elected Philip H. Chadbourn, Charles S. Chapin, Richard L. Davis, Burton L. Newton, and Edmond J. Vachon as Directors for the next three years. Other Directors whose terms of office do not expire until 1964 and 1965 are Kimball Ames, Guy P. Butler, Howard W. Cole, Henry H. Hastings, Charles E. Heywood, Arthur F. Lincoln, Roger D. Luce, Dexter M. Stowell, Murray W. Thurston and John W. Trinward.

In his Annual Report, the retiring President, Charles E. Heywood, pointed out the fact that the major project of the Corporation during the past year had been the furtherance of plans for a new State Park at Grafton Notch, a matter which is now before the 101st Legislature in Augusta in the form of an appropriation request for $45,000 to purchase the land. This, it was stated, is primarily the result of four years' effort by various committees and members of the B. A. D. C.

At the brief meeting of the Board of Directors which followed the membership meeting, the Directors elected the following officers for the coming year: President, John W. Trinward; Vice President, Roger D. Luce; Secretary, Guy P. Butler; and Treasurer, Edmond J. Vachon. The new President announced that another meeting of the Board would be called at an early date for a discussion of the year's program.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

BETHEL NOT A TOWNSHIP — In the recent "Oxford County Review" Rumford-Mexico is listed as the largest community area, followed by Norway-Paris as the second largest and Bethel as a large township west of Rumford.

Now Bethel just happens to be an incorporated town, the fifth largest in Oxford County, with two banks, a weekly newspaper, several fine hotels, motels and restaurants, many good stores and last but not least an educational center, for Gould Academy has a high standing throughout New England and the U. S. A.

Now a township in Maine conveys the idea of a wilderness area too small in population to be organized as a township. Surely Bethel with nearly 2500 people, the metropolis of Northwestern Oxford, is not in the township class but is entitled to its rightful position in the county. In future write-ups of Oxford County we hope that the Chamber of Commerce or Jaycees will see that Bethel is never again listed as a township.

KNIGHTS - SMITH
The United Church of Christ at Center Lovell was the scene Saturday afternoon of the marriage of Miss Carolyn Frances Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith of Lovell village to Donald Knights, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knights of Oxford.

The Rev. George A. Harvey from Fryeburg performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Beverly Bassett was matron of honor for her sister, Kenneth Knights, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushering were Albert Fox of Lovell and Peter Wuori from Oxford. Mrs. Mary Woori played the traditional wedding music and Mrs. Nora Gould sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The reception held in the church vestry following the ceremony was arranged and planned by Mrs. Charles Fox, aunt of the bride. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Mary Smith, Cutting and serving the cake was Mrs. Walter Harri-man, aunt of the bride. Miss Brenda Patten had charge of the guest book. At the gift table were Miss Linda Fox and Lorraine Saunders of Lovell and Miss Iris Stewart from North Bridgton. Mrs. Florence Stevens, Mrs. Beverly Bassett and Mrs. Charles Fox served punch and refreshments. Two hundred and ten guests signed the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Bartlett and son, Jeffrey, from Manchester, Conn., have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gerry, a few days. They were called here by the death of Mr. Bartlett's father, E. Nelson Bartlett, of Fryeburg.

CREDIT BUYERS MAY FIND TAX SAVING IN INTEREST AND CARRYING CHARGES

There's hardly a consumer who doesn't buy something on credit, yet many of them overlook the interest charges when figuring their annual income tax, according to Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine.

An article in the current issue of the magazine, which suggests ways taxpayers can trim the annual debt to Uncle Sam, reminds readers that finding another $100 or $200 of deductions can save at least $20 to $40 in taxes.

"Interest paid on your auto loan, home mortgage, life insurance policy loan or other debt is deductible," the article points out. So is any penalty paid to speed up mortgage payments or retire a mortgage. Taxpayers who own stock in a cooperative apartment can deduct a portion of annual payments as interest. And interest on back taxes finally paid to the Federal, state or local governments is deductible.

"Perhaps you bought on the installment plan," the article continues. "The interest charge often is included in the 'carrying charge' and not stated separately. In that case, deduct as interest 6 percent of the average unpaid monthly balance during the year. Check the rules on just how to figure it out."

Finally, the article advises taxpayers who borrowed on a "discount" loan to remember to include the charges. "Say you got $1,800 cash on a $2,100 loan and paid back $70 monthly for 30 months. You are actually paying $7 a month interest which is deductible—the $210 discount divided by the 30 months."

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Heath had a call from their cousin, Miss Sandra Bennett, and a friend, from Rumford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Andrews in Bryant Pond on Sunday.

Hollis Buck was called home by the death of his sister, Mrs. Christina Tuttle, this week end. He returned to his work in Boston Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bryant Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Davis' birthday.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family, and Mrs. Tuttle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Win Buck, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews took Mrs. Bert Cole to Lewiston for treatment at the CMG Hospital. She was able to return home with them that day.

Ronald Heath has been ill with the prevailing epidemic. He is better and able to work again. Alan Heath is ill at present.

"This selection is based on individual performance of duty in all phases of basic training, including leadership, initiative, military bearing, sportsmanship, response to orders, general cleanliness, qualifications of a good shipmate, and high overall scholastic standing."

"It is indeed a high honor for him to be selected from among a large group of young men for this award, and he is to be commended for the conscientious attention to duty which led to this achievement."

"I am sure that this selection gives you a feeling of personal pride and satisfaction, and you are to be congratulated on his accomplishments."

"A Certificate of Honor and a suitably engraved mounted plaque will be presented to him during the Recruit Graduation Ceremony which will commence at 10 a. m. Saturday 16th February 1963."

Albert Sumner entered the Navy on November 27, 1962. His address is: Albert L. Sumner SR 904-16-46, Company 538, 16th Bat. 1st Red, USNCT, Great Lakes, Ill.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

MORNING IN HER EYES

Poets are entitled to see both sunshine and shadow. Many of us agree that when the first sheet is torn from the big Grain Company calendar on the kitchen wall, we can see morning in Year's eyes, as the poet stated.

We are facing the light now that the sun has started back toward the zenith. Those days when the countryman climbs the hillside to the woodlot, he can feel the promise of spring in the mellow air. These are days when the red line mounts into the high forties and gray-green water trickles down the sled tracks.

Naturally, a man accepts the verdict of the ground hog. If Chug-Sug, the woodchuck, saw his shadow on the second day, it means six more weeks of cold. But that does not unduly depress one; after all, as the men say at the forum around the pot-bellied stove in the general store while waiting for the mail to be sorted, each day is one nearer spring.

This is the Moon of Hungry Foxes and if the Weather Man decides to be ornery, it can be a bleak, harsh period. Gray days piod grimly by; tempests roar down from the north and snow clogs the roads. The kitchen stove and the parlor heater take heavy toll of the fuel supply and fodder decreases rapidly on the scaffold.

But when it is February, there is a new spirit in the air. The sky is bluer and the sun's rays seem warmer. Chickadees poke around the old Nedhead behind the woodshed and sing their sweet two-note spring song. A man may think that perhaps he is being a trifle

20 SECONDS with the NAZARENE

Under cover of night, Nicodemus went to Jesus seeking citizenship in the Kingdom of God. Jesus revealed to him the one requirement, "Ye must be born again!" The Master said nothing about doctrine, theology, or works. He spoke only of faith and declared that the believer should have eternal life.

Hastings a Busy Community 60 Years Ago

The following story of the Hastings community is taken from an April 1905 issue of the Gorham, N. H. Mountaineer. The date of origin and some other data may not agree with facts or other information which we have been able to gather, and we feel certain that some of our readers will be willing to let us have further light on this interesting subject.

"Last September the Hastings Lumber Company, having exhausted its supply of logs and being a corporation situated so far away from its field of operations, it was decided to discontinue its work in Oxford County. At this time the Hastings Chemical Company was formed. Its members were D. R. Hastings of Auburn, his son, Marshall R. Hastings, also of Auburn, and his two brothers, W. W. Hastings and T. P. Hastings of Bethel. This new company bought of the Hastings Lumber Company a first purchase of the wood alcohol plant and a month later bought the balance of their plant at Hastings so that now the Hastings are the sole owners of all the territory.

"And business is now booming at Hastings. There is not an unoccupied rent. The alcohol plant has 3,000 cords of wood piled in the yard and the mill is now being overhauled and is likely to start any day. It will be conducted by an expert in the business, Mr. Hunt of New York.

"The birch mill has already got out its usual 2,000 cords and will continue operations until July 1. The 5,000,000 feet of logs for the International Paper Company is already cut and is now in Wild River, being worked down to its mouth by the river drivers, at which point, when reached, the Hastings will have completed their contract.

"At the saw mill there are great piles of hardwood logs, 1,000,000 feet in all, which will soon be shipped to the Paris Manufacturing Company at South Paris.

"Last fall 12 weeks of school were held under the instruction of Miss Sanderson and it is expected that school will begin again the first of May.

"Hastings can probably claim a greater variety of nationalities than any other place in the world for its size. There are Yankees, French, Russians, Poles, Swedes, Irish, Germans, Austrians, Danes, Armenians, and one or two Turks. The French, however, predominate. The population is now nearly one thousand.

"And when it comes to law-abiding citizens, Hastings takes the cake. There has not been an arrest there in the history of the place. The people are all industrious and peaceful.

"The village is four miles from Gilead and is connected with that place by a stage road running through the same gap in the mountains through which the first settlers passed when they located there, way back in 1820, and through which 'Old Tom' went when he ran away to Canada.

"In 1898 the Wild River Lumber Company built a railroad track from Gilead to Hastings. It was necessary to build the track directly in the stage road for over a mile so that the only way to get into Hastings for years was by the steam cars which made connections with the Grand Trunk at Gilead.

"Since last November the Hastings have had the road taken up, finding that so much of their product went down by the river that it would be more economical to carry anything out which could not go by river by team instead of on the track. The roadbed is practically the same as that used for the track so that there is now a fine highway and the mail team comes into Hastings twice a day. The two engines, together with the cars which were used on the road, have been sold.

"The Hastings Lumber Company still owns its tract of wild land in Bean's Purchase and expects to sell it into the White Mountain forest preserve if the bill now pending before Congress becomes a law."

HOW TO CUT HEAT COSTS

5 tips that can help you get more warmth from your heating oil dollar

1. Keep your oil burner clean and properly adjusted. And use today's Shell Heating Oil. It contains a special additive called FOA-EX. This additive helps keep critical burner passages free from clogging—assures better firing.

2. Set your thermostat back when you go to bed at night—saves significantly on your heating oil bills.

3. Be sure your burner has sufficient air. Oil needs lots of air to burn properly. Don't block off air supply to burner. Don't allow dust and lint to accumulate on air intake openings.

4. Don't block hot air vents or cold air return ducts with furniture.

5. Stop air leaks around poorly fitted windows by using weatherstripping or storm windows.

THE PASSING OF HASTINGS

From The Berlin Independent, October, 1904.

The recent closing out of lumber operations at Wild River results in the abandonment of the little colony. Last week, Wednesday, saw the last passenger train to run to the settlement. Since Emery Bros. of Portland assumed the ownership, the timber has been rapidly cut off, and now operations are being closed up as fast as possible. The machinery in the mills is being sold and the mills closed.

Wild River has been a thriving little settlement about two miles from Gilead with numerous cottages, a store, school house, hotel, and a post office named Hastings, but with the closing of the mills the settlement has been abandoned. The balance of the wood will be cut and floated down the river for pulpwood, which pays better than to saw it.

The little settlement has a somewhat romantic history. Sixty years ago the place was called "Nigger Tom's Opening" because a slave who ran away from his master in the South came to Gilead, and going into the woods cleaned up land and began farming. He proved to be a flourishing farmer, and soon had a fine stock of cattle and horses.

About this time, however, Congress passed the fugitive slave law which allowed the master to come North, call on the United States Marshal, and assist him in arresting and taking home his fugitive slave. This law struck terror to the heart of poor Tom, and he went to Gilead to ask advice of leading citizens as to the course he should pursue. Tom's cause was warmly espoused by them, and in the discussion of the matter one man, Hiram Bennett by name, exclaimed, "Uncle Tom, if they carry you away they carry you over my dead body!" However, they advised him in order to avoid bloodshed to sell his possessions, and this he did and fled to Canada, where lonely and heartbroken, his sorrow so overwhelmed him that he grew dissipated and soon died.

This story of "Nigger Tom," or Mr. Thomas as he was called by others, was printed some 50 years after his departure. Another account of his troubles, which we have no reason to doubt, tells of his Gilead friends after missing his usual visits who went to the opening and found his cattle and horses starved in the barn, and no trace of him was found. Knowing that he would not have willingly left his property, foul play or an accident was believed to have taken place.

Discontent is the first step in the progress of a man or a nation. —Oscar Wilde

The Citizen is indebted to Eddie Gillander of Gilead and Portland for the use of the two photographs reproduced on this page. The pictures are dated February 15, 1892—71 years ago tomorrow. Shown in the pictures is Shay Engine No. 1 of the Wild River Lumber Co. with a log train. The lower picture shows the same engine and train unloading in the large yard near the mill. In the distance, beyond the mill, is seen another engine.

Further information concerning the Wild River and Hastings lumber companies will be greatly appreciated. The date of these pictures does not agree with the story on these pages reprinted from the Gorham Mountaineer. It would appear that logging had been going on for some years before 1892 from the appearance of the hillsides in the lower picture. Names of the crew shown are not known.
